3. LSP Status & RBI Digital Lending Compliance

CreditBuddy operates as a Lending Service Provider (LSP) as defined under the Reserve Bank of India's Digital Lending Guidelines issued on September 2, 2022 (RBI/2022-23/111 DoR.STR.REC.68/21.01.001/2022-23) and related circulars.

3.1 CreditBuddy's Obligations as an LSP

- CreditBuddy does not make credit decisions. All lending decisions rest exclusively with the NBFC/Bank Partner.
- Loan funds are disbursed directly by the NBFC/Bank Partner to the borrower. CreditBuddy does not handle, hold, or transfer loan money at any time.
- CreditBuddy ensures that the NBFC/Bank Partner's name and nature of the credit product are disclosed to the user before any loan application is initiated.
- CreditBuddy co-ordinates delivery of the Key Facts Statement (KFS) from the NBFC/Bank Partner to the user prior to loan acceptance.
- All borrower data collected by CreditBuddy on behalf of the NBFC/Bank Partner is transmitted securely and used only for the specific loan application for which it was collected.
- CreditBuddy maintains a functional grievance mechanism for platform-related complaints and directs loan-related complaints to the NBFC/Bank Partner's grievance mechanism and the RBI Ombudsman as applicable.

3.2 Obligations of Our NBFC/Bank Partners

CreditBuddy's LSP agreements with NBFC/Bank Partners require those partners to:

- Maintain all applicable RBI licences and comply with RBI Master Directions on digital lending, KYC, and fair practices.
- Provide KFS to borrowers directly through the CreditBuddy Platform interface before loan acceptance.
- Conduct final KYC verification and credit decision-making independently.
- Disburse and collect loan amounts directly with borrowers without routing through CreditBuddy.
- Maintain their own grievance mechanism and participate in the RBI Integrated Ombudsman Scheme.

4. Data Regulatory Compliance Status

|---|---|
| DPDPA 2023 | CreditBuddy's Privacy Policy and consent architecture are designed for full compliance with DPDPA 2023. Ongoing monitoring as Rules are notified. |
| IT Act & SPDI Rules | Privacy Policy published; Grievance Officer designated; Security practices implemented. |
| Data Localisation (RBI) | All user data stored on India-based servers. Cloud vendors configured for India-only storage. |
| Aadhaar Handling | Processed via UIDAI-authorised channels only. Full Aadhaar number not stored on CreditBuddy systems. |
| Account Aggregator | AA-based data access facilitated through NBFC/Bank Partners who hold AA consent artefacts. CreditBuddy does not independently participate in the AA ecosystem. |

5. Grievance Mechanism Disclosure

In accordance with the IT Act 2000, Consumer Protection Act 2019, and RBI Digital Lending Guidelines 2022, CreditBuddy maintains the following grievance hierarchy:

| D&O Indemnity | Directors and KMPs are indemnified for bona fide actions under Article XXII-1. D&O insurance to be obtained. |

8. Partner Institution Disclosure

CreditBuddy facilitates services through partner institutions across three verticals. Users are entitled to know which regulated institution is responsible for each product they apply for:

- BORROW Vertical: The name, RBI licence number, and grievance contact details of the NBFC/Bank Partner are disclosed to users before initiating each loan application.
- LEARN Vertical: The name and contact details of each EdTech partner are displayed on course listing pages.
- EARN Vertical: The name and contact details of each employer partner are displayed on opportunity listing pages.

CreditBuddy does not charge users a hidden fee in connection with partner introductions. Where CreditBuddy's platform fee is included in a product's APR, it is disclosed in the KFS provided by the NBFC/Bank Partner.

9. Limitation of Regulatory Representation

IMPORTANT — Regulatory Status Clarification

CreditBuddy does not represent, suggest, or imply that registration as an LSP under RBI Digital Lending Guidelines constitutes a comprehensive banking or lending licence. CreditBuddy is a technology intermediary. Users seeking regulated financial advice, investment counsel, or formal banking services should approach RBI-licensed banks and financial institutions directly.

10. Updates to Regulatory Disclosures

This document will be updated within 30 days of any material change in CreditBuddy's regulatory status, company details, applicable law, or governance structure. Users may request the latest version at grievance@creditbuddy.in.
